

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up your quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Col. John McCrae

Little flower of red
Proudly lift your head
You're the symbol of heroes brave,
Each poppy fair, is for a boy over there.
Made brothers whose lives were saved.

Let us gladly give,
For the Poppy of Sacrifice,
So small, so red, a remembrance
Of the dead...
From the boys who paid the price.

Thank you for being here today.

We are honored to stand with you, commemorating the sacrifices of those military men and women who have laid down their lives in service to our nation.

We are here with you on Memorial Day to remember them and to show our respect and appreciation for their contributions and sacrifices.

We are proud to honor them today.
I would ask that as we read the names of the veterans buried here you keep the fallen in your minds,
and their families and friends in your hearts,
because it is their immense sacrifices that have helped to keep our country safe and free.

A Salute:

We take this day to mourn for those Who suffered fates of ills. It was
For those who fought until death,
Giving our nation their last breath.
To these passed on---we now Salute
Their legend we will never dispute.
As they sleep let us bestow
the highest honor that we know.

Here are a few things we all can do to observe our fallen heros on Memorial Day:

- by flying the US Flag at half-staff until noon.
- by flying the POW/MIA Flags as well.
- by participating in a “National Moment of Remembrance” at 3 p.m. to pause and think upon the true meaning of the day, and for Taps to be played.
- by renewing a pledge to aid the widows, widowers, and orphans of our fallen dead, and to aid the disabled veterans.

Memorial Day Thoughts

Many men have died for us
so we could live in peace.
We honor you on this day
as our pride will never cease.

You served our country proud and brought pride to us all.
I thank God for every one who answered their last call.

For some you may be gone now
but you'll never be forgotten.
As you lie there in the ground
under that flag of woven cotton.

From the beginning of our country to the last war we just fought.
Your duty and your honor
will never have been for naught.

For those of us still here
and remember you this day.
If it wasn't for you all there would be no USA.

I stood up for what was right left this earth one fateful night.
I ask you to pray for me
and help watch over my family.

On this day remember those who's lives have come to a close.
Those who have gave all they had men just like my dear old dad.

Fighting for the red, white and blue and for our rights for me and you.
So remember those who gave it all these men of honor who stood tall.

From many wars throughout our past our country's shape they help to cast.
Pride for people on our shores
many men died from all our corps.
